

Baptist Sunday school picnic at River-side park Friday.

A large amount of roofing work is now being done on the new building.

A handsome new sign is now being painted on the front windows of the Valley grocery on Douglas avenue.

It took a force of seven clerks to wait upon the customers at Allen's clearance sale of boots and shoes Saturday, and they were kept busy all day.

A little son of Ben. Hermis, who lives near the Globe Iron works, was severely kicked by a mule Sunday. Fortunately his injuries are not of a serious nature.

A very fine thoroughbred bird dog, shipped from St. Louis, arrived at Wells, Fargo & Co's express office in this city yesterday, consigned to W. H. Stowell.

The quarterly meeting at the German Reformed church Sunday was quite largely attended, and the sermon delivered by Elder Retz is very highly spoken of.

Two drunken men were run in Sunday by the police, and yesterday on being released in the police court, dropped the usual amount in fine and costs—$5 each.

The Knights of Labor will give their first annual Harvest ball at the skating rink on this city to-morrow evening. Good music has secured and a pleasant time is anticipated.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schroll, who lives on Fifth avenue near the Catholic church, died Saturday evening and was buried at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Rev. J. H. Bell, late pastor of the Second Baptist church, (colored), writes us a postal saying that he will not be responsible for any of the church debt, which amounts to $500.75.

The Baptist Sabbath school picnic, which was postponed last week on account of the weather, will take place on Friday, of this week with the same arrangements as before.

Two men from Kingston were in the city yesterday inquiring for the "late" L. W. Crouch. One of them desired to see him $500 worth and the other wanted a $300 sight of him.

Mr. Edward Vail, of La Porte, Indiana, whom we mentioned a few weeks ago, has purchased three quarter sections of land in Payne township. He says he will be a resident of Sedgwick before many months.

The engineering corps of the Wichita, Denver & Northern railroad, which commenced today to locate that line from Wichita to Queen, City. As soon as the location survey is completed, grading will be commenced by a large force of men and teams.

The following figures will show the receipts and disbursements at the county treasurer's office up to the end of closing business yesterday: Receipts, $44.46; Disbursements, $28.23.

The two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sparks died Saturday night of whooping cough and measles. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of its parents, near the Catholic church.

Sedgwick county takes the lead in everything—even to good looking school ma'ams. We never saw a nicer or more intelligent looking lot of teachers than those now in attendance at the county institute.

There is a strong desire upon the part of many to have Douglas avenue opened to the hill immediately on Five corners have been contracted for. Mr. Knight has the contract for building three of them.

Mrs. Irwin, an elderly lady of about fifty years, living in the country near Clearwater, died Monday morning of the dread disease consumption, with which she had been afflicted for years. Her funeral will take place this afternoon.

All lovers of sensational court testimony should make arrangements to be on hand next week and hear the trial of the divorce case of Mrs. Rosenbush. The evidence promises to be rich and spicy. Front seats reserved for bald heads and city editors.

The following named persons joined the German Reformed M. E. society Sunday, at their quarterly meeting: Daniel Dick, of Clark county, Ind.; Louis Strach, of Louisville, Ky.; Joseph J. Youngmeyer, of Nauvoo, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Holz, of Bradford, Ind.

W. T. Jewett, who came in a few days ago from his farm near Valley Center, says that crops are looking splendid. He has three hundred acres in corn, which will yield fifty bushels to the acre. The same ground last season was in corn and averaged fifty bushels. This year the stand is much better.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gore, who kept a room on Main a few doors south of second street, died Sunday night at 8 o'clock, with cholera infantum. The funeral took place from the restaurant, where the family live, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Hewitt of the Presbyterian church conducted the services.

The State of Kansas vs. Emil Werner is the title of a case that will be tried before Justice Thomas today. Mrs. Simms, the complainant, charges Werner with disturbing the peace. She rents two rooms from him in the Werner block on Douglas avenue, and in some manner Werner, so she alleges, yesterday disturbed her peace and quiet, with the above results.

A knock-down fight occurred on east Douglas avenue yesterday, in which one of the participants got his head pretty badly hurt by coming into contact with a large rock in the hand of the other fellow. The man who got the worst of the bargain has now out on a warrant for the arrest of his adversary, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon.

The case will probably be heard today in Justice Thomas' court.

G. W. C. Jones says he don't care a cent about the tariff or prohibition questions any longer, but he does believe that women ought to have equal rights with men, and hence with him will support the woman suffrage party. This radical change in Mr. Jones' sentiments was brought about by the arrival at his home Sunday of a little girl, who tipped the beam at eleven pounds. Jones says it's the smartest little baby he ever saw, and looks just like his pa.

A large number of people from Wichita and surrounding towns left on Sunday morning's train for the G. A. R. national encampment at Minneapolis. As the crowd assembled at the depot preparatory to starting, they all seemed in the best of spirit and determined on having an enjoyable trip, which we hope they will. Several parties who were unable to leave Sunday took yesterday morning's train for the north. The majority of those who went from this city will be gone ten days or two weeks.

The case of J. C. Davis vs. the A. T. & S. F. railroad is yet in progress of trial in the district court. The evidence on both sides was concluded last night, and this morning the arguments will begin. The case will hardly go to the jury before to-morrow. It has elicited considerable attention. One doctor testified that he had made an examination of Davis' injuries, and gave it as his belief that he would never be able to walk without some aid. Another doctor, who had made careful examination, testified that he found no evidence of any serious injuries, and believed that with proper care Mr. Davis would be a well man in a few weeks. This is about the present status of the case, and the jury will have a job on their hands to arrive at a just verdict.

CHURCH BELLS.

A Brief Synopsis of Rev. J. D. Hewitt's Sunday Sermon.

The pleasant change in the atmosphere Sunday morning from the sweltering heat that had prevailed the previous week, tended in a large measure to augment the number of people who wended their ways to the sanctuary of the Lord on this cool, beautiful day when all nature seemed to rejoice and unite in offering praise to Him who has given us health and strength, and made it possible for us to assemble together on the holy Sabbath day in beautiful temples of worship, and in songs and happy congratulations do homage to the Giver of every great and perfect gift. What a comfort—what a consolation must come to the weary soul as it sits beneath the sanctuary of God, listening to the Divine promises of everlasting peace and glory to those who faint not by the way. One looking through the half-closed doors upon the beauties and grandeur of nature, realizing that He who accomplished all this is capable of redeeming his every promise and caring for the weak and the trusting in Him—must experience new hopes and feel like joining heartily into the beautiful services of this, the Lord's holy day.

A very large congregation assembled on Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church, and were favored with an able and interesting discourse by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Hewitt. He selected as the foundation of his remarks, Matthew 14th chapter and 1st verse—"Then was Jesus led into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil."

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

The object of the speaker in selecting this text was at once apparent. He wished to impress his listeners with the fact that successfully meet and withstand the machinations of the evil one, required more careful preparation than it does to successfully encounter and overcome the vexations of every day life. Even the Savior spent thirty years in careful preparation before entering upon the great trial of his life. He took ample time in which to be strong in resisting temptation and to be able to stand to the end.

familiarity with the subject he is handling. You will notice that I have put Mr. Mc-instead of Prof., that is according to position on orders from the instructors. We are ordered to address them in plain M. T. S. T. O. R., and it's a sensible idea.

There was but little to report yesterday, as the time was mostly taken up in perfecting the organization of classes and organizing the program for the week for the rest of the session. More

SUDEN DEATH.

A very sudden and unexpected death occurred in this city Sunday night, the victim being Mrs. Mary Gosh, who lived on Brighton postoffice, about eight miles south of Cheney. Mr. and Mrs. Gosh came to Wichita on the early train Sunday morning on a visit to Mrs. Gosh's brother, Mr. Henry Kaufman, and also to attend the quarterly meeting being held by the German Reformed society.

On arriving here they went to the house of Mrs. Gosh's brother on Emporia avenue. During the week and Mrs. Gosh was in usual health and attended morning and evening services, at the church. After returning to Mr. Kaufman's house in the evening the two ladies began making preparations for retiring and were discussing some minor topic when all of a sudden Mrs. Gosh threw up her arms and settled back in the chair, her eyes set and staring. Mrs. K. jumped up and called, "Mary, what is the matter?" and at once made the discovery that she was dead. Dr. F. W. Whitlock was immediately called. He found life extinct, and assigned as the cause of her death apoplexy of the heart.

Mrs. Mary Gosh was of German parentage, but was born in Warsaw, Illinois, came to Kansas some seven or eight years ago. She was a sister of Mr. Henry Kaufman, of this city, and was a little over forty-five years of age. She leaves a husband and one child, a daughter of about fifteen years. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at four o'clock from the residence of her brother, the services being conducted by Rev. John Haller assisted by Dr. J. A. Reitz, of Newton.

CUT ON A BARRED WIRE.

A valuable horse belonging to C. C. Cooper was terribly lacerated and nearly ruined Sunday night by coming into contact with a barbed wire fence. Some one had run a single wire across the old main traveled road which extends diagonally across from Church to Main street, just east of Commodore Woodman's residence. There was nothing to show that the road had been fenced up, and in the dark hours of the night this single wire was not observable half a dozen paces away. About 11 o'clock Policeman Snyder was out in the vicinity driving this animal of Mr. Cooper's. Having no idea that any obstruction had been placed across the road, he drove along at a brisk trot, when all of a sudden the horse was caught by the barbed wire fence, and was mortally cut up about the chest, front and hind legs, and the buggy pretty well smashed up. Snyder brought the horse back to the stable, but it was unable to use its left fore leg, and the flesh and skin hang in shreds down its knees. We understand that Mr. Cooper will demand damages from the party who fenced the road and he will doubtless recover them, as his horse is ruined and his buggy pretty badly used up. People in receiving old traveled roads, especially with barbed wire, ought to exercise more discretion and not allow the wire to be exposed, or if they do they should be held for damages that result therefrom.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—H. A. Capron, of St. Louis, is in the city.

—John Goodyear and wife, of Mackinac, are guests of the Truinit.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wallace will return today from their Kansas City trip.

—J. W. Wear and Wm. Dougel, of Garden Plain, were in the city yesterday.

—Alberto Zarate, business manager of C. D. Hess' Opera company, gave the EAGLE a pleasant call yesterday.

—We are sorry to state that Justice Hobbs is too ill to be at his place of business. It is to be hoped that he will be all right again in a few days.

—R. Hatfield and Col. J. W. Harzfeld returned Saturday evening from St. Louis, where they had been in the interests of the Wichita, Denver & Northern railroad.

—We are sorry to state that Mrs. W. E. Dowdle, wife of the city circulator of the EAGLE, is confined to her bed with influenza, and at her home on Fourth avenue.

—Mr. A. Allen will leave some day next week for the east, where he goes to purchase goods. He says that he will bring back a larger and finer stock of boots and shoes than he has ever carried.

—Fred Sniley, of Ottawa, spent the Sabbath in Wichita. Fred's visits to the Forest City are not at all a purely business character, but one may judge by the happy smiles bestowed upon him by a certain young lady.

—Mr. Geo. A. White, an old and accomplished teacher of the city, has kindly consented to furnish the EAGLE with a series of reports of the teacher's institute now in session in this city. "To-morrow" is an entertaining writer, as will be discovered by reading yesterday's report of the institute, to be found in another column.

LAND SLIDES.

The following are the real estate transfers recorded in the register of deeds' office July 21:

Joseph Mariotti to Wm. Hendren, parcel of sec 25-27-1 east, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

Adia L. Skinner, of Monka, to City, 500

each meeting, and as we cannot afford to detail a man for the entire evening we want to know if when a reporter is sent up to get the proceedings and actions of the meeting he is to be furnished them in a pleasant manner or to be bluffed.

PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.

A meeting was held at the Douglas avenue last evening last evening for the purpose of organizing an advisory local board of the United States Mutual protective association, a charitable and benevolent association of men and women, formed for the express purpose of affording charitable and benevolent aid to its own members in case of accident, sickness or death. It is entirely mutual, and is controlled by its own members each having a voice in the conduct of its affairs. An organization was perfected with about twenty charter members, offered as follows: H. Langridge, president; John Herring, vice-president; E. W. Smith, secretary and attorney; A. W. McCoy, medical examiner. The next meeting will occur at the same place on Friday evening, second vice-president, of the association was the organizer.